

Please say this prayer:

Dear Heavenly Father, I have sinned against heaven and against You.

I ask you to please forgive me.

I feel a need in my heart for you in my life.

I know in my heart that Yeshua (Jesus) is your only Son who shed His blood, died on the cross (Tree of Sacrifice), to cover my sins. You raised Him from the dead and He now sits on the Throne at Your right side in heaven.

Heavenly Father, please guide my life away from the temptations of this world.

Please fill me with the Holy Spirit (Ruach Ha Kodesh) for comfort and strength.

I love You and thank You for coming into my heart!

I ask all these things in the name of Yeshua Ha Mashiach (Jesus the Messiah) Amen! (So be it)

Romans 10:9 says:

“That if you confess your mouth the L-rd Jesus and believe in your heart that G-d raised Him from the dead, you will be SAVED!”

We also will be praying for you!

May G-d be with you always!

Home Sweet Home

When you're far away
and all alone...

There is no place like home!

Have you ever heard the term:

“Prodigal Son”

Please let me share the story with you.

There once was a man that had two sons. One day the younger son asked his father for everything he was due to inherit. The father divided his things and gave his younger son what he asked. The younger son took his early inheritance and left his father.

He journeyed to a far away country where he wasted all his money on all the wrong things. Hard times fell on him and the country he had gone to. Since he had wasted all his inheritance, he had to take a job on a farm feeding pigs.

After a while he was so hungry that the beans he was feeding to the hogs started looking good to eat. He had hit rock bottom, as many of us have. He started thinking that back home, his father’s workers were treated better than this. Anything was better than living with the pigs.

When he was still a long way from his father’s house, his father saw him coming back and was overjoyed and had compassion on him. His father ran to meet him and hugged and kissed him, because he was so glad to see him return.

The Prodigal son asked for forgiveness and told his father that he had sinned against Heaven and against him. Instead of his father being disappointed in him, he gave him new clothes. He also gave him a new ring for his hand and new shoes for his feet. He had his best grain-fed calf butchered and threw a huge feast. He said this is my son who was dead, but is now alive. He was once lost, but now he is found.

Now please, let me ask you: Have you been a Prodigal son or daughter to your Heavenly Father?

Please let me urge you to return to our Heavenly Father! He loves you and forgives you! He is running towards you right now! Please run to meet Him! Ask for forgiveness and tell Him you love Him!

He has new clothes for you!

He has a robe of righteousness showing that your sins are forgiven!

He also has a ring for your hand!

A wedding ring for all believers who together are called:

“The Bride of Messiah”

He also has a feast prepared for you!

There will be a wedding feast at the return of Yeshua Ha Mashiach. (Hebrew for Jesus the Messiah)

As the scripture says: “Blessed are those who are invited to the Wedding Supper of the Lamb, and the Spirit and the Bride say come!”
